Work-study program for computer
engineers

Strasbourg, January 30, 2023

Subject: Application Internship abroad

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am currently studying at CESI, specialized in Computer Science, and I am looking for an internship abroad for 15 weeks.
for an internship abroad for a period of 15 weeks. I am therefore sending you my application with CV, letter and contact details, letter and contact information.

In order to practice the skills that I have acquired during my I have chosen to do a work-study program in order to continue to perfect and above all to enter the world of work more efficiently.
In alternation my skills are valued and especially put at the service of various projects.
It is about evolution of skills, but also communication and responsibilities. During my internship at ACESI I have the opportunity to show initiative and to to respond efficiently to the demands and expectations of my managers. Several tasks are entrusted to me on a daily basis such as the dimensioning and the creation of complete network infrastructures for customers. The security and the implementation of of various security services on these same structures.
While continuing to practice languages learned during my studies (HTML, CSS, Linux, Python, SQL, PHP and Network).

Moreover, I had the pleasure to be recognized for my qualities. Indeed, my adaptability and to be autonomous proved to be real assets to succeed in this field. The reputation of your company and the possibilities of evolution of competences and professional experience
I am interested in your company's reputation and the opportunities it offers to develop my skills and professional experience.
Motivated, I am ready to invest myself and take up your challenges.

This experience has motivated me to continue my training by giving priority to the alternation.
Indeed, in order to validate my diploma as well as my abilities to exercise my skills and my professionalism abroad.
Joining your company would be for me the possibility to work in a sector of activity that I like and to perfect my and to improve my English language skills.

I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you and expressing my motivations in person.
In the meantime, I remain at your disposal for any additional request.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of my application,
Madam/Sir, my best regards.
